MOB LAW SCORED

President Roosevelt Commends Gov. Durbin's Course

And Uses it as a Text for a Forceful Discussion of Lynching and Mob Violence Generally.

Indianapolis, Aug. 15.—Governor William T. Durbin has received from President Roosevelt a letter commending the attitude assumed by him with reference to mobs and lynchings in Indiana, in which he also expresses his own views on lynchings and mob violence generally. He points out that mob violence is merely one form of anarchy and that anarchy is the forerunner of tyranny, and then vigorously urges that the penalty for crimes that induce resort to lynching shall be applied swiftly and surely by due process of the courts, so that it may be demonstrated that the law is adequate to deal with crime by freeing it from every vestige of technicality and delay.

President Roosevelt's letter in full to Governor Durbin follows:

ROOSEVELT ON MOB LAW.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 6, 1903.

My Dear Governor Durbin:

Permit me to thank you as an American for the admirable way in which you have vindicated the majesty of the law by your recent action in reference to lynchings. I feel that you have made all men your debtors who believe—as all far-seeing men must—that the well-being of a nation depends upon the spirit of orderly liberty under the law, which is in incompatible with mob violence as with any form of despotism. Of course, mob violence is simply one form of anarchy, and anarchy is now, as it always has been, the handmaiden and forerunner of tyranny. I feel that you have not only reflected honor upon the State, which for its good fortune has you as its chief executive, but on the whole nation. It is incumbent upon every man throughout this country, not only to hold up your hands in the course you have been following, but to show his realization that the matter is one of vital concern to us all.

All men must feel the gravest alarm over the growth of lynching in this country, and especially over the hideous forms so often taken by mob violence, when colored men are the victims, on which occasions the mob seems to lay most weight, not on the crime, but on the color of the criminal. In a certain portion of the cases the mob lynched has been guilty of a crime horrible beyond description—a crime so horrible that as far as he himself is concerned he has forfeited the right to any kind of sympathy whatsoever. The feeling of all good citizens that such a hideous crime shall not be hideously punished by mob violence is due not in the least to sympathy for the criminal, but to a very lively sense of the train of dreadful consequences which follow the course taken by the mob in exacting inhuman vengeance for inhuman crime. In such cases it is well to remember that the criminal not merely sins against all humanity in an inextinguishable and unpardonable fashion, but sins particularly against his own race and does them a far greater wrong than any white man can possibly do to them. Therefore, in such cases the colored people throughout the land, should in every possible way show their belief that they, more than all others in the community, are horrified at the commission of such a crime and are peculiarly concerned in taking every possible measure to prevent its recurrence and bringing the criminal to immediate justice.

The slightest lack of vigor either in denunciation of the crime or in bringing the criminal to justice is itself unpardonable. Moreover, every effort should be made under the law to expedite the proceedings of justice in the case of such an awful crime. But it can not be necessary, in order to accomplish this, to deprive any citizen of those fundamental rights to be heard in his own defense which are so dear to us all, and which lie at the root of our liberty. It certainly ought to be possible by the proper administration of laws to secure swift vengeance upon a criminal, and the best and immediate efforts of all legislators, judges and citizens should be addressed to securing such reforms in our legal procedure as to leave no vestige of excuse for those misguided men who undertake to reap vengeance through violent methods.

Men who have been guilty of a crime like rape or murder should be visited with swift and certain punishment, and the just effort made by courts to protect them in their rights should under no circumstances be perverted into permitting any mere technicality to avert or delay their punishment. Substantial rights of the prisoner to a fair trial must be guaranteed, as you have justly insisted that they should be, but, subject to this guarantee, the law must work swiftly and surely, and all agents of the law should realize the wrong they do when they permit justice to be delayed or thwarted for technical or insufficient reasons.

We must show that the law is adequate to deal with crime by freeing it from every vestige of technicality and delay, but the fullest recognition of the horror of crime and the most complete lack of sympathy with the criminal can not in the least diminish our horror at the way in which it has become customary to punish these crimes and at the consequences that are already proceeding therefrom.

It is inevitable that where vengeance is taken by a mob it should frequently light on innocent people, and the wrong in such a case to the individual is one for which there is no remedy. But even where the real criminal is reached, the wrong done by the mob to the community itself is well nigh as great. Especially is this true where the lynching is accompanied with torture. There are certain hideous sights which when once seen can never be wholly erased from the mind. The mere fact of having seen them implies degradation. This is a thousand fold stronger when, instead of merely seeing the deed, the man has participated in it. Whoever in any part of our country has ever taken part in lawlessly putting to death a criminal by the dreadful torture of fire must forever have the awful spectacle of his own handiwork seared into his brain and soul. He can never again be the same man.

This matter of lynching would be a terrible thing even if it stopped with the lynching of men guilty of the inhuman and hideous crime of rape, but as a matter of fact lawlessness of this type never does stop and never can stop in such fashion. Every violent man in the community is encouraged by every case of lynching in which the lynchers go unpunished to take the law into his own hands whenever it suits his convenience. In the same way the use of torture by mobs in certain cases is sure to spread until it is applied more or less indiscriminately in other cases.

The spirit of lawlessness grows with what it feeds on, and when mobs with impunity lynch criminals for one cause they are certain to begin to lynch real, or alleged criminals for other causes. In the recent cases of lynching over three fourths were not for rape at all, but for murder, attempted murder and even less heinous crimes. Moreover, the history of recent cases show the awful fact that when the minds of men are habituated to the use of torture by lawless bodies to avenge crimes of a peculiarly revolting description, other lawless bodies will use torture in order to punish crime of ordinary type. Surely no patriot can fail to see the fearful brutalization and debasement which the indulgence of such a spirit and such practices inevitably portend.

Surely all public men, all writers for the daily press, all who in any way have the right to address the public, should with every energy unite to denounce such crimes and support those engaged in putting them down. As a people we claim the right to speak with peculiar emphasis for the freedom and fair treatment of all men, without regard to differences of race, fortune, creed or color. We forfeit the right so to speak when we commit or condone such crimes as these of which I speak. The nation, like the individual, can not commit a crime with impunity. If we are guilty of lawlessness and brutality, whether our guilt consists in active participation or in mere connivance and encouragement, we shall assuredly suffer later on because of what we have done.

The corner stone of this republic, as of all free governments, is respect for an obedience to the law. If we permit the law to be defied or evaded, whether by rich man or poor man, by the black man or white man, we are just so much weakening the bonds of our civilization and increasing the chances of its overthrow and of the substitution therefor of a system in which there shall be violent alternations of anarchy and tyranny.

Sincerely yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

GOV. DURBIN'S COMMENTS.

Gov. Durbin, speaking of President Roosevelt's letter, said the Associated Press last night:

"I naturally feel gratified over the commendation which the Chief Executive of the country has seen fit to bestow on my acts in connection with the trouble at Evansville, and I certainly regard it as a great compliment for the Executive of the State to meet the conditions to which he refers, as much as it is for the people themselves. A Legislature may make laws, but their enforcement lies after all with the people for whose government they are made. There could be no reasonable complaint either of the Executive or Courts in this State on the ground of non-enforcement of law, for there have been eight executions for capital offenses during my administration, a record in that respect never before equalled in this State. But it is not a race problem at Evansville. After the negro Lee was removed to Vincennes a mob assaulted the State when it assaulted its representatives as it existed in the militia. I am not prepared to say it was war on the colored race, but rather general contempt for the orderly way of enforcing the law."

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of Doctor.

"I am just up from a bad spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by J. H. Williams.

PARDON.

Colonel Felix Backed up Pleas for Pardon for Josephus Free

With Tender Personal Messages.

Some Unique Letters Copied From the Official Files in Governor Beckham's Office

Showing How Executive Clemency is Secured.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 12.—The pardon of files the present State administration are astonishing in their revelations of the motives and influences that go to secure pardons for malefactors and criminals that have any political influence with the persons that surround Gov. Beckham. To one familiar with the public records and State papers it is amazing to read the personal and political appeals that have been made, and which were accepted and have been allowed to go on record as furnishing reasons for the granting of pardons.

From the standpoint of personal intimacy, the most extraordinary yet discovered is in the papers accompanying the pardon of Josephus Free, which was obtained through the energy and personal political pull of Joseph Donaphan Felix, Augusta, Ky., who is a member of the military household by the title of "Colonel."

It is not only astonishing that Col. Felix should mix intimate personal and political matters with his official application for the pardon of a convicted rapist, but it is amazing that the Governor should accept these with their revelation as personal documents.

Entirely apart from the merits of the pardon of Josephus Free, the letters of his good friend, Joseph Donaphan, are interesting from a literary point of view.

The letter of earliest date of Mr. Felix, on file, is of a very confident tone. He asks the pardon in writing apparently for the first time, although he had mentioned it orally before and seems to entertain no doubt of the granting of it. The "Mount" to which Col. Felix urges that the Governor "give the devil" is Gov. Mount, of Indiana with whom Gov. Beckham was in a controversy at the time over the extradition of W. S. Taylor. The first letter follows:

FIRST WRITTEN APPEAL.
Augusta, Ky., April 4.

My Dear Governor:—I transmit herewith for your consideration an application for a pardon. I have no hesitate in believing that, the facts submitted will induce you to at once give this boy his liberty. I urge you to do this as the record shows clearly his innocence, and the condition of his mother is really precarious and the sooner her boy returns to her the sooner will her condition of mind, if not of body, be relieved. In case you have any doubt about the matter please wire me at my expense, so I can come personally to see you. If you will at once grant this meritorious pardon please advise me of its having been granted by telephone at my expense. Now, do that, if you please, sir.

This is the pardon I spoke to you of, I believe.

Give Mount the devil. The old scoundrel deserves the condemnation of all honest men.

Hoping you are getting along all right and with warmest good wishes.

Sincerely your friend,
Joseph Donaphan Felix.

AN ASTONISHING PUBLIC DOCUMENT.

The second letter on file dated May 16, breathes, also, a tone of confidence in his personal influence. In fact, he scolds a little at delay. This is in other respects an extraordinary letter inasmuch as the writer mixes up personal admission for and flatter of the Governor, as a lawyer with the freest discussion of intimate personal matters. The names of a number of well known Kentucky ladies, married and unmarried, of the highest respectability, are mentioned in the freedom of personal familiarity.

It would be improper to print the names of these ladies so offensively dragged into an application for a pardon of a bestial criminal. The letter should never have been accepted for record. If Col. Felix's sense of delicacy was deficient the Governor should have come to the rescue. He should returned the letter to Col. Felix and demand that applications for official action be put in official communications. The letter follows:

Augusta, Ky., May 16 1900.

My Dear Governor:—I am loath to write your further with reference to the pardon of Joseph Free, but the physicians of his mother have twice telephoned me recently that her condition is critical and is gradually growing worse; that her life is fast ebbing away with her chances of living being lessened each day with the warm weather now upon us. The non-necessity of the boy, his long confinement, the general desire for his pardon by leading citizens ought certainly to warrant your clemency. I hope you will send him home and I impress upon this case. The granting of his pardon will be a great gratification to me, Governor.

The briefs in your case at Washington were sent to me and I read them closely. I cannot see but one outcome and that is a decision favorable to you. Bradley's brief was as strong as one for that side of the case as could have been presented, but it lacks legal stamina. Their position is largely untenable.

I suppose you will go to the Confederate Reunion at Louisville, I expect to be there. Friends write me that socially, this affair will be delightful.

I noticed you were at—, and I suppose — was charmed to see you. I have a slight recollection of her, having when quite young been a resident of —, I lost my heart there once myself, and my girl — has been twice married since then.

I spent this week in Cincinnati, the special cause of my visit there being the presence of Mrs. —, of —, and her friends. Mrs. —, Miss — is also there, and I enjoyed seeing her again. She inquired much of you.

Sometime when you can meet me in Cincinnati, and I will arrange to make you feel your oats for a few days.

Asking you to remember me cordially to Tady, Leigh and the boys, I am,

Sincerely yours,
J. SEPH DONAPHAN FELIX

SHARPLY SCOLDED THE GOVERNOR.

By the time June 12 had rolled around Mr. Felix began to grow impatient, with the delay of the Governor. In a curt and pointed letter he began to make demands of State's Chief Executive. He stated he did not deserve such treatment and accused Gov. Beckham of personal and political ingratitude at not coming to town. The following is the letter:

Augusta, Ky., June 12, 1900.

My Dear Governor:—I confess I am at a loss to understand your treatment of me recently. Certainly the friendship and consideration and support I have shown you would seem to merit some gratitude. But we will let these observations pass.

You will recall with reference to the pardon I have petitioned you for, that when I personally presented the application to you, you gave your reasons for delay, and then, after reflection, you directed your secretary to prepare the pardon at once. One of consideration for you, I suggested that you might delay a short time, whereupon, in the presence of both Leigh and Mr. Byron, you voluntarily promised to send the boy home the fore coming week. Since then, now some two months, that promise is not fulfilled. Is this fair? Is it just, especially when upon the statement of a physician the greatest emergency is shown? I submit to you that I feel that I have been badly treated, and I ask that you show the innocent boy prisoner, for his dying mother's sake, that you are willing to manifest justice and mercy. The press each day gives the intelligence that you are pardoning men convicted of the worst offenses, and certainly there is no reason why the poor persecuted boy should not be given his liberty.

I am writing plainly, Governor, I feel that I am justified, and it my efforts to free a wronged and innocent youth offend you, then I can truly say that your own course in this matter has truly provoked such frankness on my part. You have several times promised to pardon this boy. Please let me know what you propose to do now.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH DONAPHAN FELIX.

THE CURSE OF THE PARDON MILL.

In his speech to the jury in the Jett-White case at Cynthiana on Tuesday Commonwealth's Attorney A. F. Byrd, of Breathitt county, laid bare with merciless definiteness the influence of the political pardon mill at Frankfort on crime and lawlessness in Kentucky—but especially in the county where the State is maintaining troops now to repress assassination.

Mr. Byrd is a Democrat, elected as a Democrat, and spoke in this case upon his oath and upon his conscience, and above all, with a knowledge of the hideous influences that hide behind the prerogative of clemency.

Here is what he said:

"What do such men as these care for a sentence of life imprisonment as the laws are enforced now I had rather be sentenced to serve five years. Governors turn the convicts loose. They go back to their crimes

A TRUE STORY.

How a Young Wife Regained Her Health and Beauty.

W. E. Birch, Afton, Va., an extensive fruit grower of that place, writes the following letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio. We print the letter in full:

Afton, Va., June 4, 1900.

Gentlemen:—The country is so flooded with patent medicines of every kind that one is not able to say I have found one that is everything and more than is claimed for it.

"My wife was very much run down and out of sorts in every way. She had a polio disorder which left her very weak, nervous and no appetite at all."

"One day I happened to be at my father's store, S. A. Birch, Corcoran, Alb county, Va., and noticed your medicine bottle. I bought a bottle of it and within a week she commenced to eat and now she is hungry all the time and not half the medicine has been taken. We both agree that it beats any medicine to bring on an appetite and to put the nerves in good shape that we have ever had anything to do with. We had our family doctor to give her medicine and he did all he could, but she did not improve the least. She has consumed in her family made an entirely new woman of her. I believe she eats and feels better now than she has for years."

"I have not the slightest doubt but that your medicine has saved her from a long spell of sickness, if nothing more. All my family had begun to get uneasy, but, of course, she did not know it and I have only just told her of it since she has improved so much. I had no idea it would do half what it has and don't think there is another medicine made that will begin to compare with it."

(feeling free of those for which they have been pardoned.)

"If you sentence these men to life imprisonment they will be pardoned, and they will go back to Jackson to hunt down like dogs those who have testified against them. If you are going to refuse to hang them, you had as well turn them loose now."

"Men who have been convicted of crimes as black as the murder of James B. Marcum have been pardoned, and are being pardoned, to go back to the communities from which they were sent and to strike terror to the hearts of law-abiding citizens. This is constantly being done. Men guilty of the foulest crimes, men without conscience, are turned loose upon society to continue their careers."

"Turn these men loose upon the stricken county which has been the scene of their violation of the law, and you will force the good citizens of that county either to go into exile to sacrifice their property, to give up the home of their childhood, to flee in terror from that land of their birth the land in which they have a God-given right to live, or you will force them to the other alternative, that of banding themselves together to take up arms and go to lair of the assassins, and those who hire them, and exterminate the whole lot."

"Hang them and you will strike terror, not only in the heart of those who employ ruffians to shoot the life out of men they wish to put out of their way."—Louisville Herald.

Constipation

And all symptoms and Results of Indigestion

Absolutely removed by the use of DR. CARLSTEDT'S GERMAN LIVER POWDER

Money refunded if you are not pleased with results; has cured thousands—why not you?

Mr. R. B. Hackett, a prominent merchant of Mississippi, Ky., was a sufferer from years from constipation and indigestion, and was prevailed upon by Dr. Carlstedt's German Liver Powder for constipation. He had done great good. He gave it a single trial, when he began to feel better at once. Troubled with piles, Mr. Hackett was surprised to find himself cured of this dread disease of bodily ailments. He is now well and does not use any medicine. If you are afflicted in this manner, give it a trial. It will cost you only 25 cents, and should be put away as we say the drugist is authorized to refund your money.

Growing Old

Ought not to mean growing weak and feeble. It does not mean weakness or feebleness for those who eat with good appetite and sound digestion. It is of the utmost importance that old people should retain the power to digest and assimilate food which is the sole source of physical strength. When age brings feebleness it is generally because of the failure to assimilate the nutrition contained in food.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food. It invigorates the liver and promotes general physical well-being.

"It is with gratitude we acknowledge what Dr. Pierce's medicine has done for grandmother's good. In fact it cured her. I am Mrs. Carrie Barker, of Perryburg, Ohio. 'She had been afflicted with several physicians but found no relief until Dr. Pierce advised her what to do. She has taken only three bottles of Golden Medical Discovery and is entirely well. She is first with pain in kidneys, bladder and liver for ten years, and her limbs were swollen with dropsy so bad she could hardly walk. My grandmother's name is Mrs. Caroline Hennen, her age is 72 years. I will gladly answer all letters of inquiry.'"

Sick people are invited to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held strictly private and secretly confided.

It is only a matter of time until Jett and White will be back in business at the "old stand."

It is reported that Caleb Powers may ask to be allowed to argue his own case before the jury at Georgetown, where he is now being tried for a third time for complicity in the murder of Goebel.

Will Judge Hargis, Albie Young, or some other member of the Democratic State Central Committee furnish this office with a copy of the State Democratic platform upon which Beckham, etc., are running, this year?

A SINGLE juror, a cousin to one of the attorneys for Jett, again saved Jett from the gallows. It is the general impression that this juror, as one in the former trial at Jackson, had been tampered with by the apostle, Hargis, or some of his cohorts. Curious things are suffered to be done in the courts of the State, as now constituted.

COL. MORRIS B. BELKNAP, Republican nominee for Governor, made a tour through Eastern Kentucky this week in the interest of his candidacy. He received encouragement on every hand; business men, regardless of politics, assured him of their support. Too much Calhounism, Hargisism, Graft and Pardon, they say, in the Beckham administration.

Does a party that is too cowardly to enunciate some principle or adopt a platform upon which it bases its claim to the suffrage of the people, merit the support of anyone? This is the status of the Democratic party in Kentucky. It has not set forth a single act that it approves or condemns. It does not even approve the administration of Governor Beckham, yet he (Beckham) is out asking a re-election at the hands of the same party which failed to endorse or approve of a single thing he has done while in office.

BECKHAM'S indorsement on the pardon of Curtis Jett to be issued immediately after the election: (1) "He made out a good case of self-defense." (2) "It may have been a case of mistaken identity, owing to the striking resemblance of White and Jett." (3) "Then he proved by my committee-man, Judge Hargis, that he was on the street at the time the shot was fired and therefore did not commit the crime." (4) "Possibly he was suffering from immolation insanity at the time he did the killing and is no murderer at heart." (5) "He is a good Democrat and his victim a Republican; I, therefore, grant him a full and free pardon."

"CURT" JETT and Tom White were, by a jury of twelve men, sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary for the assassination of J. B. Marcum. The jury stood eleven to one in favor of inflicting the death penalty on Jett. These two assassins have both been pardoned by Governor Beckham for crimes they had committed before they murdered Marcum. It is now in order for Beckham to pardon them again with in the near future that they may continue to assist Judge Hargis in exterminating all opposition to Hargisism, the apostle of latter-day Democracy in Breathitt county and Eastern Kentucky.

NEVER had the Republicans, the independent voters and the liberal Democrats of the Sixth Judicial District a greater opportunity to perform a distinguished public service. The Judiciary of the State has fallen into disrepute and the present weak and grossly incompetent State administration has completely engulfed it in the slough of polluted political corruption. The soulless Democratic machine which dominates the party in Kentucky, gives the nominations to men as a reward for dirty political rascality, and you don't have to go far to find a nominee for Circuit Judge who is so frightfully incompetent that the men who are responsible for his nomination will not mention his name only in a "confidential" way. When the Republicans meet in Owensboro on September 1, they should, and will, nominate a man, who is recommended to this responsible position by his ability, integrity, competency and merit. If men of this character are nominated for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, they will be triumphantly elected in November.

Cynthiana and Georgetown Trials
Newspaper defenders of Goebellism liken Jett and White, red-handed murderers by profession, tried for the assassination of James B. Marcum, to Caleb Powers, a brave, scholarly Christian gentleman, on trial for complicity in an alleged conspiracy to assassinate William Goebel.

Beyond the fact that Goebel and Marcum were victims of assassins there is no point of similarity between the Cynthiana and Georgetown trials.

Caleb Powers was 30 or 40 miles away when the murder of Goebel was committed, and conceding practically everything that the State claims, the charges against him in connection with that crime are not as heinous as those hurled into the teeth of Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan by the Commonwealth's Attorneys who prosecuted the assassins of James B. Marcum.

The assassin of Goebel is undoubtedly in the penitentiary to-day serving a life sentence, as the assassins of Marcum will be in due time if not released on pardons, and there the similarity between the two cases ends.

When the whole power of the State of Kentucky, from the Judges on the bench down to the petty Sheriffs who pack juries with vicious partisans, backed by the greatest corruption fund ever available for a criminal prosecution, is used to hunt down and punish the men who procured the assassination of James B. Marcum, as well as the vile wretches who did their bidding, and not until then, can our Goebellite contemporaries claim that the same avenging spirit has dominated the prosecutions growing out of these two monumental Kentucky crimes.—Lexington Leader.

Byrd Not Satisfied With Jett Verdict But Thinks he Can Hang Him For Cockrill Murder.

Cynthiana, Ky., Aug. 20.—Cynthiana has assumed her usual quietude. Curtis Jett and Tom White were both removed from here Saturday. The soldiers have resumed their citizens clothing, most of the people have quit talking about the verdict and accept it now as a matter of course. It would be useless to say that they are not satisfied, for fully 99 per cent. of the people here were strongly in favor of a verdict of hanging.

The Commonwealth's Attorneys says that they will try Jett at the regular term for the alleged killing of James Cockrill. They seem to think there is no doubt about the legality of trying him, pending the appeal in the case just tried. Mr. Byrd said he was not satisfied with the verdict in this case but he had a stronger case against Jett for the killing of Cockrill. He says there are three eye-witnesses to the killing, and also says a motive can be proved.

FORT NIAGARA DOINGS.

MR. EDITOR:—The weather is great with large days full of sunshine and silvery clouds and sweet flowers and cool, fresh breezes from lake and river, that would delight Old Paw himself and invoke jealousy of the Gods of other climes,—but next winter—"Well that's another story."

Of the vast stream of people to see our great Niagara, a few drift down to see the Old Fort and French Barracks of Colonial times.

On Saturdays, and sometimes Sundays, we have baseball on the parade and we beat all amateur teams we "stack up against."

August third was a Civic Celebration over in Canada and yacht racing on the lake.

July 14th to 20th we took an excursion in force to Detroit, Mich., where there was much parading in honor of San Juan Hill and a grand military tournament for the benefit of the society of the army of Santiago de Cuba.

There were hundreds of thousands to see the parade and from five to ten or more thousand people paid fifty cents apiece to see the grand military tournament.

They got their moneys worth too for "Buffalo Bills Show" is tame compared to the cockack drill and bareback exercises of the crack troop of the Second Calvary. Their troop and cockack drill was also fine.

Then the Ninth Infantry composite company gave some fine military movements and calisthenics.

The Twenty-first Battery of Field Artillery "did some stunts" of driving and firing blank shells—Action Front, Action Rear, etc.—that gave a flavor of real war and caused the uninitiated to start at each volley.

About one a. m. of the 18th July, a rain and wind storm blew down nearly half our tents and gave us a reminder of the "good old times" in the Philippines during the rainy season.

But you are tired, dear reader, and so I bid you adieu. J. C. B.

BRIEF NOTES.

It is estimated that 20,000 veterans of the G. A. R., are attending the thirty-seventh annual encampment which began Monday in San Francisco.

A Pennsylvania minister, unable to find a house to rent, has given up his pastorate, alleging that the Lord has taken that plan of showing him that he should go elsewhere.

Four prisoners escaped from the Lawrenceburg jail Monday morning by sawing the locks off the prison doors. One of them, Henry Thomas, a negro, was recaptured.

A young woman, is dead, one young man insane, and two men and two women are missing, the result of a picnic in California. The cause of the catastrophe is a mystery.

The highest wage in the world is $730 a minute for a day of six hours. It is received by the Czar of Russia and it is doubtful if many people would care to thread his way amid plots and dynamite bombs even for the wage.

An excellent complexion wash is made by taking a quart of ammonia, half a gallon of vinegar, and a half gallon of water, and adding a dozen clothes-pins. Give the clothes-pins to the church and pour the rest of the smear on the dog.

The Panama canal treaty has been unanimously rejected by the Columbian Senate, and a feeling of depression seems to exist throughout the isthmus. Fears of a secession movement are expressed. Under the Isthmian Canal Act the President of the United States is authorized to make the necessary treaties for a canal with Costa Rica and Nicaragua.

Resolutions.

WHEREAS, In accord to the Divine will, one of our Sunday School has been called from her labors in our school, and,

WHEREAS, A vacant seat is left to remind us that nevermore will we be permitted to enjoy the pleasant greeting, the affable and lovable nature of Bertha Cox in our Sunday School, in our social gatherings and in the home of her family, therefore, we offer the following resolutions:

1st. That, though we deeply deplore the loss of our departed friend and co-worker, whose youthful life was just blooming into womanhood, yet we submit, feeling that our loss is her gain.

2nd. That we extend to the bereaved family our tenderest sympathy in their sad bereavement, and commend them to Him in whose hands the destiny of all people and nature hangs.

3rd. That while we will ever cherish the memory of Bertha, yet we humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

4th. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Sunday School and a copy sent to the family of the deceased, and also copies furnished the county papers for publication.

TO DETROIT AND NIAGARA.

Leaving McHenry on the 14th of July, we went immediately to Louisville where, at 7:30 next morning, we boarded an elegantly decorated special for Detroit, passing through a country of great agriculture resources and immense oil fields, we arrived at Detroit, the metropolis of Michigan, at 8:30 p. m. There we were met by an Epworth League Committee and assigned homes.

The next morning we began feasting our eyes on the beautiful city which had donned its loveliest garb to do honor to the zealous band of workers, the "Epworth League," together with gay decorations for the Santiago soldiers who had the good fortune to be holding a reunion at the same place. We found Detroit a city of model homes, wide well paved streets, generally lined with beautiful shade trees and at night brilliantly illuminated with electricity. But the manifold charm of Detroit lies in her river and lake resorts. The pleasure seekers, leaving the noisy city behind, soon buried themselves in green fields and shady highways as they ascended Detroit river to Lake St. Clair, passed around Belle Isle Park, which is an island of seven hundred acres in the Detroit river, being the finest natural park belonging to any American city, down to Bois Blanc Park in the huge Columbia, and many other short trips of equal grandeur: such as the St. Clair Flats, better known as the Venice of America, the historical Put-in-Bay, all go to make the modern visitor feel like his summer days had passed in a dream. After spending a week in Detroit sight-seeing and attending the Epworth League Convention, we left on Monday for Niagara Falls to view the grand and picturesque creations of God's great handiwork.

Arriving at the Falls, we stood at the most southern point of Goat Island and saw the limpid water divide to take its course around the island. Seemingly it could not resist the invitation to plunge into the slanting river bed, with its huge boulders standing firm and solid, to which it must be dashed with great force, dashing the water from fifteen to twenty feet high. On it goes, down the rocky decent, rushing past the Three Sister Islands, on and on 'till you feel your pulse beat with great emotion as it plunges over the high precipice and fall in its rocky bed below.

The fascination of the Falls is beyond the telling, as you stand and listen to the mighty roar and roar of the water, reminding one of an approaching storm and the never-to-be-forgotten colors from chalky white to various shades of green, and the mist towering high above the Falls like some huge engine displaying its mighty strength in sending up vast volumes of great white smoke. Nor is all this the only object of interest in this bewitching scenery, for when the sun has reached a certain height, beautiful rainbows flash in the sunlight, veiling the mist from the green and turbid water of the Niagara, which, seemingly, is resting after it has fallen in its rocky bed.

Peacefully it glides until it reaches the Erie bridge where the whirlpool rapids begin. Here the visitor has an excellent opportunity to view the rapids from Niagara to Lewiston by means of an electric railway near the water's edge.

Leaving Niagara Falls we continued our journey to Toronto, the "religious city," taking a trolley ride of two hours over the city. One is convinced that it has its just title from the many magnificent houses of worship.

Leaving Toronto at 4 p. m. on the steamer Toronto, we were soon far out on lake Ontario, watching the scudding vessels cut through the shimmering water making a single track like a wide silver ribbon. Soon the scene shifted, the monarch of the day was bidding us good bye before laying down in his watery couch. A long band of dim blue clouds stretched across the far away horizon, while the crimson, the scarlet, the blue and burning gold were there with all their glorious tints, together we stood and saw the king of the day die, and when the first stars appeared in the zenith above, we retired for the flow and ebb of tide to wait sweet music through our dreams. On awakening the next morning we found ourselves in the great St. Lawrence river, amid the Thousand Islands, the beauties of which constitute an attraction rivaling any scenery found in any other river.

Here the pretty palaces with their green lawns dotted with bright flowers of every hue—the rose, the geranium and most all southern flowers seem to be perfectly at home in this cool northern climate. Leaving the steamer at Alexandria Bay we embarked on a little yacht, the "Capt. Visger," for a three hours cruise among the islands; passing through the Lost Channel, Kift, Needle's Eye and many others of great attraction. We had full view of all the beautiful castles, pretty cottages, quaint little foot bridges made of interwoven branches of trees, and islands with their rocky walls covered with dark green moss.

Leaving Alexandria Bay we departed for home feeling that He who created all things created these wonderful sights for the gladness of His fellow beings and Himself.

INTERURBAN RAILROAD.

Engineers Running a line From Henderson to Hartford.

Engineer Stewart and six others accompanying him all in the employ of the Henderson and Hartford Interurban railway promoters, arrived in the city Sunday to begin a preliminary survey of the route of the road between this city and Green river, says the Henderson Gleaner. Two Henderson men were added to the force, thus the party now on the line between here and Green river numbers nine souls. Sunday afternoon Col. E. G. Sebree and Engineer Stewart drove out several miles along the line of the proposed survey in order to locate a starting point on Fifth street and run first an air line to a designated point on Green river. They will then run two other parallel lines in order to discover the easiest grades. The work will be thoroughly done and then a report made.
Col. Sebree informs the Gleaner that the route from Hartford to Green river has been located and the right of way secured. On being asked if he really believed the road would be built he replied: "I can not understand why so much money is being expended in surveys if there is any doubt of its building."
The road will prove one of vast benefit, not only to every farm along the line, but of immense benefit to Henderson. Certainly Henderson should encourage its building in every practical way in her power.

DARING ROBBERY

Aged Man Held up at James & Younger's Show And $30 Taken—May Lose his Mind Over it.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Aug. 19.—A daring robbery has just come to light here.

John Helton, of Aarons Run, this county, a ninety-year-old farmer, had $30 in green backs taken from him in James & Younger's Wild West Show, while it was here. He procured the money from a bank to play on a gambling game, but when he returned to the game the money was taken from him and on penalty of death he pledged never to reveal it.

He nearly went crazy and divulged his misfortune during sleep. No clue to the theft has been found, though officers tracked him to Lexington.

Helton's friends fear he will lose his reason over the loss of all his money.

Resolutions on the Death of W. G. Hardwick.

HARTFORD LODGE NO. 675 F. & A. M., HARTFORD, KY., August 12, 1903.

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Architect of the universe, in His allwise providence, to take from us our dear brother, William Graves Hardwick, who was our worthy, efficient and beloved Secretary, be it Resolved, First, That in the death of Bro. Hardwick, Hartford lodge No. 675, has lost one of its most faithful and sincere members and a capable and devout Secretary, his wife a true and loving husband, his daughter a kind and indulgent father, his church a useful and consistent member, his community an honorable and upright man, and his country a loyal citizen.

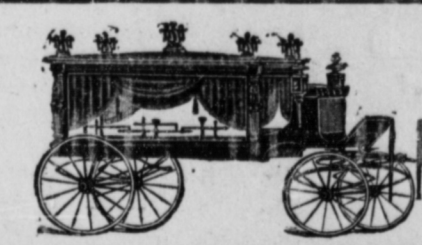

Second, That we extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy, and mutually mourn with them the deep loss we have all sustained.

Third, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days and that the secretary's desk be draped in mourning for the same period of time.

Fourth, That we have these resolutions spread upon our records, published in the county papers and a copy presented to the Masonic Home Journal and to the family of the deceased.

HARTFORD LODGE NO. 675 F. & A. M., HARTFORD,

FRIDAY, AUGUST 21.

FOR BETTER SCHOOLS

Prof. McCartney, Nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction Comes Out in Strong Letter of Acceptance.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 17.—The Hon. C. M. Barnett, Chairman Republican State Central Committee, Louisville, Ky., Dear Sir: The nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction having been given to me by the unanimous vote of the Republican State Convention, held in the city of Louisville in July, I wish to express to you and through you to the Republican voters of Kentucky my appreciation of the high honor that has been conferred upon me. As the nomination came to me entirely unsolicited, I esteem the honor of it so much the more.

It is with a sense of the great importance of the office and of the crying need of Kentucky for better schools that I accept the nomination; and, if elected, I shall put forth every effort to bring the educational interests of this Commonwealth into the enjoyment of their full development. The laborer and the man of means have equal rights in seeking the best school privileges for their children; but under present conditions they do not have equal opportunities. The common schools and the higher institutions of learning that are supported by the State, should be so improved that a child from the humblest home in Kentucky can have all the educational advantages that the child of fortune can buy. Good public schools are an index of the life of the community in which they are found; and when we contemplate crime rampant and education languishing, side by side, in certain portions of the State, and see the jails more and more crowded while the school houses fall into decay, we can but implore the inefficiency and insincerity of the Democratic party in dealing with this problem.

Having been reared in the public schools and having spent my adult life as teacher and superintendent in them, I come before the voters of Kentucky distinctly as a public school man; and I have an abiding and implicit confidence in these schools, if liberally fostered and their interests wisely administered, to lift the State out of the reach of lawlessness and to place its people upon a plane of thrift and prosperity.

Of the many reforms that the people of Kentucky are demanding in the management of the schools of the State, there is no space to treat in detail, but the time is ripe for a strong forward movement for better trained teachers, longer terms and better attendance in the rural districts, the development of district libraries, the fostering of a State University, equal to the best, and a firm, independent stand on the text-book question by which the best school books can be provided at the lowest prices obtainable under open competition.

If elected, I will labor for all of these improvements in the schools of the State, and will endeavor to make my administration mark the dawn of a new day for the children of Kentucky. My record as superintendent of the schools of Henderson and Hopkinsville during the last eight years is accessible to all, and will show that I have been absolutely independent on the text-book question, recommending such books as seemed best suited to the classes, and that I have been active and earnest in all movements for the betterment of the schools of the State, and particularly of the city under my charge. Very respectfully yours,

LIVINGSTONE MCCARTNEY.

DO YOU GET UP

WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the greatest medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but it will cure kidney, liver or bladder trouble. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

ed the fish: "A nought's a nought a figger's a figger an' all de bee' fish belong to dis ole nigger." The Democratic election bosses make it read this way: "A republican's a nigger and a nigger's a nigger, and all the office belong to us."—Yellow Jacket.

Physician and Druggists. Ford & Sturgeon, a prominent drug firm at Rocky Hill Station, Ky., write: We were requested by Dr. G. B. Saigley to send for Herbine for the benefit of our customers. We ordered three dozen in December, and we are glad to say, Herbine has given such satisfaction that we have duplicated this order three times, and to-day we gave a salesman another order. We beg to say Dr. G. B. Saigley takes pleasure in recommending Herbine. See bottle at J. H. Williams.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Bally, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for sores, frost bites, and skin eruptions. It does the work."—25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at J. H. Williams.

Mr. Cleveland's attitude toward the nomination reminds us of a certain young widow. She was greatly believed over the death of her husband and for a long time she declared: "I shall never marry again." A year passed, and she modified her statement, "I wonder if there isn't some man in the world whom I could afford to marry?" Another year passed and a bow-legged cow-drover popped the fatal question. Blushingly she replied: "Yes, dear,—but this is so sudden."

Kindly take notice that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is of great benefit to those who suffer from nasal catarrh who cannot inhale freely through the nose but must treat themselves by spraying. Liquid Cream Balm differs in form, but not medicinally from the Cream Balm that has stood for years at the head of remedies for catarrh. It may be used in any nasal atomizer. The price, including a spraying tube, is 75 cts. Sold by druggists and mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

A Sure Cure for Diarrhoea. Coming as it does, in the busiest season, when a man can least afford to lose time a sure and quick cure for diarrhoea is very desirable. Anyone who has given it a trial will tell you that the quickest, surest and most pleasure remedy in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is no loss of time when it is used, as one or two doses of it will cure any ordinary attack. It never fails, not even in the most severe and dangerous case. For sale by J. H. Williams.

Growing School.

The Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College, of Bowling Green, Ky., are enjoying unprecedented success. The attendance during the coming year promises to be fully thirty per cent, larger than any former year. Send for catalogue and Journal. Address H. H. Cherry, Bowling Green, Ky.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaint, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use of these diseases. For sale by J. H. Williams.

EVERYBODY'S GOING

To the State Fair at Owensboro Next Month

And see the Great Exhibits for Which $20,000 Cash Prizes Will be Given.

The great Kentucky State Fair, easily the biggest in the South, is only five weeks off, and as September 21 approaches, the interest increases rapidly. The enterprising city of Owensboro is on the hustle as it has not been before in years, and there is going to be a show that no citizen of Kentucky can afford to miss. Many of the State's exhibits for the St. Louis Exposition will first be seen at the State Fair at Owensboro next month, and the fact that many of the prize winning exhibits will be sent to the World's Fair next year will prove an additional incentive to everyone. Cash amounting to more than $20,000 will be distributed in prizes for all kinds of stock, farm and mineral products, household work and exhibits. Send to L. B. Shropshire, Secretary, Board of Trade Building, Louisville, for catalogue or information.

Boy Cured of Colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My four year old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Watch For a Chill.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn, and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. Herbine by its prompt stimulative action on the liver, drives the malarial germs out of the system, purifies the blood, tones up the system and restores health. 50c at J. H. Williams.

For Constipation

Take Lyon's Laxative Syrup; an ideal remedy for children, as it is pleasant to take and perfectly harmless under all circumstances. Price 50c.
